EXCHANGE SCINTILLATIONS.

There is a man in Cincinnati who owns one hundred dogs. Of course he's a dog-lover. Glasgow Times.

An exchange says a man who does not take a newspaper was in that town the other day, and asked how the Chicago Convention came out; and if Farwell was nominated. Richmond Register.

"Tell me, ye angelic host, ye messengers of love, shall swindlers printers here below have no redress above?" The angels tapped their wings and said: to you a harp is given; delinquents on a printer's book can never enter heaven. Hartford Herald.

A new feature in the marriage ceremony was introduced in Fleming, Ky. This State. A young couple were well to do, and not unusual, and he had been married in an entirely nude condition. The style is likely to come in general use, especially in cold weather. Covington Commonwealth.

One of Vanderbilt's sons, it is said, is going to be a reporter. He wants to be richer than his father. He isn't smart as we gave him credit for being. If he wants to become the Cereus and Rothschild of the world he ought to come to Madisonville and start another paper. Madisonville Times.

There's nothing like a fellow having a wife who loves him; one who, when he says he believes, he will take a short walk down town, says "I'll go along with you." Oh! the priceless value of true love! at the same time it strikes us that we would prefer a wife who wouldn't have so much true love about her so early in the evening—it's so delicious that it would be more appropriate as a desert. Ditto.

How tall do you think I am, said a gentleman, as another was about to apply a tape-line to him. "Five feet nine inches I should think," was the reply; and the tape-line showed precisely that height. "How could you guess so well," asked the man that was being measured. "Oh, I am in the habit of measuring things," was the quiet answer. Richmond Register.

The Best Time on Record.

The Carrollton (Mo.) Democrat says: On Thursday "Jim" Lawton invited fifty neighbors to see him beat his own time of two years ago, when his wife baked bread in eight and a quarter minutes after the wheat was standing in the field. At six minutes and ten seconds after a o'clock the Buckeye reaper stood at the corner of the growing wheat. Men were stationed every few feet along the line of the grain ready to seize an armful as it fell from the reaper and to rush with it to the threshing close by. The mill was just sixteen rods distant. At the drop of the hat the mule sprang to work, and in a minute and a half a peck of threshed wheat was in a sack and on a horse that began to race for the mill; one minute and seventeen seconds later the flour was delivered to Mrs. Lawton, and in three minutes and fifty-five seconds from the starting of the reaper the first griddle cake was even, in four minutes and thirty-seconds from the starting of the reaper a pan of biscuits was passed out to the spectators.

A Bird Alights on a Bride's Shoulder.

An incident worthy of note occurred here to-day during the nuptial ceremonies at the Catholic church of Mr. James Knowles, a policeman of your city, and Miss Maggie Brennan, of this place. When the bride and groom had taken their places, and the bridesmaid and bridesman were taking their position, a bird flew into the church and alighted upon the head of the bride, Miss Mary Brennan, a sister of the bride. The bride then flew to another part of the church, and alighting upon the head of Mrs. Brennan, mother of the bride, settled upon her head; then, flying, it settled upon the shoulder of the bride and remained there during the ceremony, and then took its flight through the open window. Whatever the mission of the uninvited feathered guest, or whether it had an intention, or what onens, good or ill, the incident is true and vouched for by scores who saw it. Lake Geneva Co. Chicago Inter Ocean.

say Mrs. Burns to Miss Arabella, a girl. Well, no, not exactly. I haven't heard of it. I was told only to-day that you were actually engaged. And you're going on the stage? Then, you're professionally engaged. I'm going to be a star.

KILLING AT TRENTON.

Henry Perkins Shoots Jerry Waller.

A bloody homicide occurred at Trenton, Todd county, Monday Oct. 15th. Jerry Waller and Henry Perkins, both colored, became engaged in an altercation and Waller seized a stick and struck Perkins over the head. Perkins then drew a pistol and shot Waller in the left breast, near the nipple. The ball struck the rib, glanced and came out at his back. Waller turned to run and in doing so twisted his leg and fell and broke it at a place where it had been broken before.

He was taken in charge by Dr. Hareless, but his wounds proved to be mortal. He complained more of the broken leg than the shot and it became so much inflamed that the entire burst and the man died Friday morning. Perkins made his escape and is still at large.

The following story is told of an English nobleman, recently deceased: The Duke was once in church when a collection was announced for some charitable object. The plate began to go round, and the Duke carefully put his hand into his pocket and took out a florin, which he laid on the pew before him, ready to be transferred to the plate. Beside him sat a little snob, who, noticing this action, initiated it by ostentatiously laying a sovereign alongside the ducal florin. This was too much for his grace, who dipped his hand into his pocket again and pulled out another florin, which he laid by the side of the first. The little snob followed suit by laying another sovereign beside the first. His grace quietly added a third florin, which was capped by a third sovereign on the part of the little snob. On came a fourth florin to swell the Duke's donation, and then the little snob triumphantly laid three sovereigns at once upon the board. The Duke, not to be beaten, produced three florins. Just at this moment the plate arrived. The little snob took up his handful of sovereigns, ostentatiously rattled them into the plate, and then turned defiantly toward his rival as if he would say, "I think that takes the shins out of you." Fanny his chagrin when the Duke, with a grim smile, put one florin into the plate and quietly swept the remaining six back into his pocket.

Two weddings in Hopkinsville society this week and several more on the tapis.

It is now pretty well settled that the Clarksville and Princeton railroad will pass between Hopkinsville and Cadiz, twelve miles from the former, and eight miles from the latter. The line is now being surveyed and will pass through the farm of Mr. H. H. Bryant near the line of Christian and Trigg counties and will pass by the Dimmock place to Cerulean Spigs and on to Princeton. These are the calculations, but an "if the road is built," will talk in like Banquo's ghost and upset them occasionally, in the minds of many doubting Thomases. It is claimed by the advocates of the road that the cars will be running in twelve months.

He Carried the Last Flag.

Talk about my war record, said an Arkansan orator at a political meeting. My war record is a part of the State's history. Why, gentlemen, I carried the last Confederate flag through this town.

Yes, replied a bystander, for I was here at the time.

"Thank you for your fortunate recollection, gratefully exclaimed the orator. It is pleasant to know that there still live some men who move aside envy and testify to the courage of their fellow beings. As I say, gentlemen, my war record is a part of the State's history, for the gentlemen here will tell you that I carried the last Confederate flag through the town."

That's a fact, said the man who had witnessed the performance. He carried the last Confederate flag through this town, and he carried it so bluffed fast you couldn't have told whether it was a Union Jack or a small-pox warning. Aakansaw Traveler.

The Sun Turns Green in India

Columbia Co. London Times.

A remarkable phenomenon has been observed lately at several places in the Madras and Bombay Presidencies, and has caused much interest mingled with not a little alarm among the superstitious. For some days the sun presented a distinctly green color. Several explanations have been put forward, of which the most plausible appears to be that offered by the Government Astronomer that it is due to the passing across Southern India of clouds of sulphurous vapor from the Java volcanoes.

An editor to whom a subscriber came in grumbling about his subscription price being too high in comparison to the city papers, put these questions in the next issue: "Do the city papers give you the home news? Do they contain notices of your schools, churches, meetings, improvements and hundreds of other things of interest which the local papers publish without pay? Do they say a word calculated to draw attention to your own town and to aid in the progress of your own industry? Answer these questions and you will be satisfied."

ment. It was so understood by the

"My case is just here," said a citizen to a lawyer. "The plaintiff will swear that I hit him. I will swear that I did not. Now what can my lawyers make out of that, if we go to trial?" An hundred dollars easy, was the reply. —Beech and Bar.
